Rub com. 354 314 Wolverines 50% West End com 534 50% Wednesday, January 19-p. m. There was little evidence of important support in to-day's stock market. Sentiment, however, was more cheerful, and buying of small lots by commission-house customers, with a covering movement by the short interest, caused fairly strong prices throughout the day. The fact that the London market for American securities was unaffected by the Senate Finance Committee's report on the Teller resolution created a favorable impression in the local Exchange. although arbitrage houses were not active. The tendency in the foreign arcount was to buy the Northern Pacific and sell the rest of the international list, total transactions, however, being less than 5,000 shares. Aside from more encouraging advices from Washington, there was no actual news affecting values. A number of very satisfactory railroad earnings came to hand and further ease in both the local and London money market was reported. The conspicuous features of the trading were the Northern Pacific issues and the stock of other Northwestern companies, which will share in the expected Klondike traffic in the spring. The buying of Northern Pacific common and preferred was excellent in character, the common stock making a net gain of 1% per cent and the preferred one of 11/2 per cent. Union Pacific was notably strong; also "Panhandle," Manhattan, Oregon Improvement, Mobile and Ohio, Sugar Refining and Consolidated Gas. Manhattan closed fractionally higher. The Granger shares were neglected, but they showed small advances. The bear faction resisted the advanceadvances. The bear faction resisted the advancing tendency to only a small extent, but it continued to express confidence in the assertion made yesterday that a period of declining values had begun. The bears are, as a role, successful in dull markets. To-day's market gave further indications of approaching dulness, transactions falling off from yesterday's total 43,183 shares, and from the total of the day before 149,216 shares.

Stocks to-day, compared with the final figures of yesterday, were as follows:	Jan S. Jan. 19.

The New-York News Bureau" has the following to say regarding Wisconsin Central Third for the Reorganization Committee and large representative Boston holders of the company's securities. A banker who is in a position to know the facts says that enough is now known of the results of the operation of the property last year to make a basis for a reorganization, and adds that the matter is already well advanced. The reaction in Wisconsin Central firsts from the extreme high level was on realizing sales for Boston and New-York account.
